NEW I. C. C. CHAIRMAN WELL TRAINED FOR JOB

Charles C. McChord Was Twelve Years Active Member of Kentucky State Railroad Commission.

Charles C McChord, who has just been cierted chairman of the Interstate Com-merce Commission, brings to his new office the knowledge of affairs gained from a wide field of personal and official experience. Previous to becoming a member of that body four years ago he had twelve years active experience as tailroad commissioner of Kentucky. Soon after admission to the bar of Kentucky he was elected prosecuting at torney of Washington County, and was twice re-elected. St. Peter used his first they are to demonstrate their initiative. St. Peter used his first the state of polyphore an Pentegost. When the ntal Kingdom, which will bless all the families of the earth-the living and the Church, St. Peter explained the situation and opened the door to the Church of Christ for the Jews admonishing the to enter. He told of the merit of Christ's death, resurrection and ascension, and how forgiveness of sits was, therefore, preached in His name .- Acts 2:14-36. The second key to the Kingdom of being the Chief Corner Stone." (Ephe- Heaven-the Church, the embryo King stang 2:20.) The Twelve Apostles are dom preparing for glory-St. Peter used three referred to in their double office-Apostics especially commissioned by the Lord as His representatives, and Prophets, mouthpieces, for the proclamation of His Message. Jesus pictures the Church of Glory as the New Jeruselem, and its twelve foundations as with the Jews of the same Promise." The opening work was with the household of Cornelius, to when the proclamation of the same promise. salem, and its twelve foundations as with the household of Cornellus, to whom twelve precious stones, in which are the St. Peter preached Christ. Thus the names of the twelve Apostles of the Gentile door into the Kingdom was thrown wide open.—Acts 10.

dation for the Church would be to deny Christ's teaching and St. Peter's own statement—that the entire Church is symbolically represented as living stones built together by the Lord through the Holy Spirit. (I Peter 2:4-10.) It was a costly mistake when our forefathers, costly mistake when our forefathers, well-established point. Holy Spirit. (I Peter 2:4-10.) It was a costly mistake when our forefathers, overlooking this well-established point of Scripture, thought of their bishops as Apostolic Bishops, and took their decisions in the councils assembled as the voice of God. The voice of God to the Apostles undertook to forgive sins. and through the Church came only through "the twelve Apostles of the Lamb." All others claiming this authority are denounced by Jesus Himself Jesus and the Apostles. Let us hold fast as pseudo-Apostles-false Apostles.the precious Word, which Jesus exhort-ed us to search and which is sufficient that the man of God may be thoroughly furnished. Let us remember that there is only one true catholic, universal Church, each member of which is a Power in Heaven and in Earth. As St. Peter was only one of the foundation stones of the Church, saint, related to God and the Lord Jesus Christ through faith, repentance and remission of sin and begetting of the Holy
